Dear Friends,
Our citizens have witnessed three mass shootings within one week. The trauma and suffering are incalculable for the victims, their families and the communities where these events took place. These overwhelming events bring not only sorrow and sadness upon us all but also a troubling wonder about where things are heading in our nation and world. I highly encourage you to read Archbishop Chaput's column on all of this. You can access it at www.catholicphilly.com or the archdiocesan webpage at www.archphil.org.

Violence, lack of respect for persons and for human life from conception, a turning away from God and God's place within civil society wells up from many differing sources and even many differing ideologies. Our country was founded with a profound belief and respect for the Almighty, the Creator who endows human beings with certain unalienable rights ~ life, liberty, pursuit of happiness. The order of these is most noteworthy and, of course, they require, even demand, discipline from us all.

In the face of the unrelenting violence against life on every level, (and at all stages of life), we have been encouraged by our Bishops to be instruments that move our country toward preventative action. They ask us to commit to increased prayer and personal sacrifices for healing, for ending such attacks, and addressing the root causes of violence to protect innocent human life.

Our readings last weekend focused on the proper use of the things and goods of this world so as not to become entrapped by greed and to be able to embrace the divine goods such as mercy, justice, love, truth. These connect us directly with God and are treasures stored up in heaven. In an affluent and such a self-focused culture, we need to heed the wisdom of Scripture more intently, more directly, more consciously, more enthusiastically.

May we intentionally draw closer to Jesus Christ and increase our prayers and our personal sacrifices for our nation, our fellow citizens, our Church, for all victims and all who suffer, so as to help bring an end to all forms of violence present among us. May we all come to rejoice in the bountiful gifts which God gives so generously to all who seek Him.

Finally, this past Friday/Saturday, we welcomed several of our Seminarians cycling for vocations. It was a blessing to meet, listen and pray with these dedicated young men seeking to grow closer to Jesus and one day to be His priests serving God's people. Please keep all our Seminarians, and all those being called by the Lord, in your good prayers! And don't forget Mass for the holy day, the Feast of the Assumption of our Lady, this Thursday. Masses at 6:30, 9 am, 12:05 and 7 pm.

God bless you, God love you,
Monsignor McCulken

Prayer for an End to Infanticide

The U.S. Senate recently failed to pass the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act—legislation that prohibits infanticide by ensuring that a child born alive following an attempted abortion would receive the same degree of care to preserve her or his life and health as would be given to any other child born alive at the same gestational age. Please join us in prayer for an end to infanticide:

Jesus, Lord of Life, transform the hearts of all elected leaders to recognize that infanticide is wrong and must not be tolerated. Open hearts and minds to recognize and defend the precious gift of every human life."

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I appeal to you today to give generously to the National Collection for The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.

As the only institution of higher education founded by the U.S. bishops and chartered by the Vatican, Catholic University is the national university of the Catholic Church, charged with educating the future leaders of the Church, the nation, and the world. Here are just two ways Catholic University is educating the next generation of clergy, religious, and young lay men and women from every geographical region of the United States:

Catholic University is helping to renew and strengthen the Church. Through hosting a national conference series focused on laity response to the sex abuse crisis, and in creating an Institute for Diocesan Excellence in Administration (IDEA), where lay scholars and professionals can support clergy by providing expertise and accountability in education, finance, canon law, culture, and more, Catholic University will serve as a springboard in renewing and strengthening Catholicism in our country. Catholic University serves the Church by engaging its students to discover knowledge and truth through excellence in teaching and research. With its 12 schools and 23 research centers, the University provides an exceptional Catholic education to almost 7,000 students annually. By way of its many programs, such as those in ethical business practices; classical architecture; intelligence studies; neuroscience; nursing; Spanish language and Hispanic ministry; social service; and Catholic bioethics the University prepares students to respond to the many issues facing the Church and society today.

Our national university is educating an important generation of lay and ordained leaders within the United States. The Collection for The Catholic University of America will be held in parishes of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia on the weekend of August 17 and August 18, 2019. Thank you and God bless you for supporting America's Catholic university and the countless number of students who will experience an education grounded in Catholic tradition.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap.

Important Note:

As you may have seen in recent news reports, a phishing scam has been affecting a small number of parishes within the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. This scam involves parishioners receiving a text message, email, or robotic call from a source alleging to be the pastor of the local parish. These messages contain a request for parishioners to purchase gift cards for a parish fundraiser and then send the gift card numbers back to the scammer claiming to be the pastor.

This is a reminder to parishioners to be aware and vigilant. In our community, you report suspicious activity to law enforcement any suspicious requests for donations or other funds.
